

EHLERS

LEADERS IN PUBLIC FINANCE

For Immediate ReleaseJuly 17, 2018

Ryan Miles joins Ehlers Investment Partners, LLC.

July 13, 2018 – Ehlers Investment Partners is pleased to welcome Ryan Miles as a Senior Investment Advisor with the firm. Miles joins Ehlers with more than 10 years-experience in financial and investment services; most recently as a Cash Management Officer with Minneapolis-St. Paul based Venture Bank.

“Ryan’s background in commercial banking and treasury management delivers a significant value-add to our clients with insights going well beyond traditional investment advice,” said David Holleran, Chief Executive Officer EIP and firm principal. “We’re excited to have him on board and be able to leverage his expertise.”

Miles holds a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Eastern Washington University and is working toward an expected 2019 completion of his MBA from Louisiana State University – Shreveport. He will maintain his primary office at Ehlers Companies headquarters in Roseville, Minnesota.

About Ehlers

Ehlers, a pioneer and leader in municipal advisory services since 1955, focuses its work on helping clients build strong, vibrant and sustainable communities. We achieve this by delivering independent guidance and prudent, unbiased advice across all areas of public finance. Our services include debt issuance, economic development and redevelopment, financial planning, debt management and compliance, and investments. We work with more than 1,500 local governments, schools, and public agencies across five states; placing our clients’ needs and best interests at the center of everything we do.
