Ehlers promotes several staff members.

September 8, 2018 - Ehlers' senior leadership announced the promotion of several staff members late last month, reflecting the culture of continuity and mentorship within its ranks, as well as its strong financial performance for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2018.

In Ehlers Wisconsin office, Principal and Senior Municipal Advisor Todd Taves promoted Jon Cameron to Senior Municipal Advisor. Cameron joined Ehlers' Wisconsin team in 2013 and was charged with building a Utility Rate Study service line. "Jon has been a leader at Ehlers in growing this business and further expanding the ways that we can be helpful to our clients," said Taves. "We all appreciate his efforts to help make Ehlers and our clients successful."

Meanwhile, the Minnesota Education team elevated Tami Olszewski to Financial Specialist II. Her Principal, Senior Municipal Advisor Greg Crowe was impressed with how quickly Olszewski exceeded his performance expectations since joining from R.W. Baird 18 months ago. "Tami has been a considerable asset to the education team," Crowe stated. "She jumps in on challenging projects in her primary role with Wisconsin schools, but also assists with business development and relationship continuity across the entire organization."

Finally, Keith Schmitz was named Bond Sales Supervisor, reflecting his growing responsibilities in team leadership, market intelligence and sales calendar management. Principal David Holleran stated about Schmitz's performance: "Keith's willingness to take on new challenges and his desire for continuous improvement are key elements of his strong leadership aptitude."
